Susan Pongratz, of Spring Hill, died May 6, 2011. Survived by husband, Jim; children, Dalla, Melissa & Tammy Lynn; 7 grandchildren; several siblings. National Cremation & Burial Society

Life does not cease to be funny when people die any more than it ceases to be serious when people laugh.

George Bernard Shaw

Published in the St. Petersburg Times on May 11, 2011

The background of the entire image is a textured, mottled olive-green or taupe color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. One is a smaller, tighter bud, and the other is a larger, more open flower with visible petals. They appear to be resting on a surface, with some soft shadows and highlights around them.

Two roses are positioned in the upper right quadrant of the image. The rose on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing its petals. They are set against a mottled, olive-green background that has a subtle, painterly texture. The lighting is soft, creating gentle shadows and highlights on the petals and the background.
